

Randy Johnston is one of just five attorneys from across the state honored for their ability at legal malpractice in Texas Lawyer's Go-To Guide.

The Guide, published in October, 2007, features a total of 145 attorneys confirmed as the best in the state through an exhaustive investigation process. Randy is one of only two attorneys in the Guide whose practice focuses on handling mainly the plaintiff's side of legal malpractice lawsuits.

The Go-To Guide is published by Texas Lawyer every five years. Out of more than 70,000 licensed attorneys in the state, the staff of Texas Lawyer solicited more than 750 nominations in 29 legal practice areas.

Staff members then spoke to hundreds of attorneys over several months and asked them a simple question: who would you turn to – based on firsthand knowledge – if you needed representation in a particular practice area?

In the area of plaintiff's legal malpractice, Randy Johnston was a name most often mentioned.
